ClearChoice - Independent sound advice you can trust

Are we qualified?

Our Audiologists hold advanced degrees from accredited universities and have special training in the identification, assessment and non-medical treatment of hearing disorders. They complete a full-time internship, pass a demanding national examination and must be fully licensed. This makes our Audiologists the most qualified to advise you on your hearing.

How long have we been helping people with hearing difficulties?

We have 35 years experience and have fitted over ten thousand digital hearing instruments. An audiologist who has fitted thousands of patients is more likely to recognise and solve problems. Fitting hearing aids correctly is both an art and a science. Our Audiologists will maximise the potential of your hearing instruments by using all of the features of your ideal aid, while the less skilled might fail to activate up to 50% of the hearing aids capabilities.

How will you determine what is best for my hearing situation?

Our Audiologist will take a detailed history of your hearing problems, your expectations, and lifestyle. In addition, a thorough tone and speech testing assessment will be carried out. Measurements for comfortable hearing levels are also tested.

Our comprehensive testing is to improve your hearing sensibility and re-establish normal hearing perception.

Are there any hearing aid manufacturers you recommend?

As Independent Audiologists, we work with hearing aid manufacturers from all around the world. Every hearing loss is unique and one manufacturer's product line may not meet the needs of everyone! As we work with the world's choice, we are in the best position possible to select the correct device that will match your needs.

Which? Best hearing aid provider overview

Following an extensive survey and the views of over 100 Which? members who had purchased hearing aids in the last 3 years, Independent installers came out top with a customer score of 84%. This score was based on customer satisfaction and recommendation which included levels of service and returns.

The amazing video otoscope

Let's show you what's happening inside...

Our state-of-the-art video otoscope system can show the inside of your ear canal, right up to your ear drum, all visible on the colour screen.

See inside your ear like never before, with no discomfort whatsoever!

Video otoscopy allows us to clearly visualise the ear canal and ear drum by projecting an image onto a computer monitor.

Using video otoscopy, we can see first-hand any conditions such as the presence or build-up of wax, or debris in the canal that may cause problems with your hearing.

Give your ears a clean bill of health!

Video otoscopy ultimately provides both patients and audiologists with a greater understanding and appreciation of what is happening inside your ear.

Our free Audiometric Test will help us identify your hearing difficulties

If you want to know more about how faster hearing can be achieved - your local Hearing Aid Audiologist expert will give you the best advice FREE. There is never any obligation and a wealth of information is available to you.

FREE AUDIOMETRIC TEST

Following an discussion on the history of your hearing and a brief ear examination, our Hearing Aid Audiologist will carry out a free comprehensive hearing test. You are asked to respond to a variety of frequencies which allow the Hearing Aid Audiologist to plot your results on a graph. With the results explained, the test is over... it's as simple as that!

We often find it a great help when testing your hearing to have a familiar voice with you. Part of our full hearing assessment is to present speech to, what is called, a Speech Clarity Test. A family member or close friend is ideal and they are free to help you with the hearing test as well as ask questions, which you may not have thought of yourself!

 says the City Council is taking a strong line. Is this the right site for a single development of flats? Or will the site be used for a range of different uses? The council is also aware of the need to protect the site from being used for anything other than a single development of flats.

Chairman Dick Price, leader of the city council, said: "We don't think it's right to build a single development of flats on the site. The site is too large and too important to be used for anything other than a range of different uses. We need to protect the site from being used for anything other than a single development of flats."

"It makes excellent sense for the site to be used for a range of different uses. We need to protect the site from being used for anything other than a single development of flats."

"The development is the first step in the regeneration of the site. We are planning a new city centre with modern architecture, high common standards and a mix of residential and commercial uses."

It is hoped that the site will be developed in a way that will be in line with the city's regeneration strategy.

Scientist's marathon cash boosts research

By George Whitch

AN Oxford scientist who has been granted a £100,000 grant to fund his research has used the money to complete a half marathon to raise funds for charity.

Last month the 40-year-old medical chemist, Dr Stephen Jones, was in the city running about and then the Surrey Half Marathon for Alzheimer's Research UK.

The 46-year-old domestic scientist, who started running when he turned 40 and has been doing marathons ever since, said his target of under two hours at the event on the country route was well within his grasp.

Stephen said: "It was a big test for me and the atmosphere was fantastic."

"I enjoyed the half more than the other half marathons - and quite a few people had heard of me from the marathon but I was happy with the result as I was doing the first half in two hours. It was really good as I was joined by the crowd."

After setting an initial target of 100 miles, he ended up doing 120 miles.

Stephen said: "I can't thank enough the people who have donated to my fundraising page."

Dr Stephen Jones celebrates after completing the Surrey Half Marathon for Alzheimer's Research UK.

"My grandfather had dementia and it was very sad watching him decline."

"That gives me extra motivation to do it. I can do it as a test for the research."

"We're really a fantastic cause."

Dr Jones is a senior research fellow at the University of Oxford, where he is also a senior research fellow at the University of Oxford.

MP praises role of science and technology in treating patients

By George Welsh

THE role of science and technology was lauded at the John Ruskig (Hospital) last week to mark Scotland's Science Week, Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood, said children and patients at the hospital in Friday to discuss the role science and technology plays in healthcare. Last week was the 10th anniversary of Science Week, a national campaign to mark Scotland's Science Week, Oxford West and Abingdon MP Nicola Blackwood, said children and patients at the hospital in Friday

Over the course of the week Oxford University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust hosted a series of events and information stands at each of the John Ruskig, Fairfield Orthopaedic and Churchill Hospitals.

The aim was to offer people the opportunity to speak to representatives from across the trust, including genetics, physics, engineering and neuroscience. The Blackwood, who is also Minister for Public Health and Innovation, met a number of staff scientists at the Churchill's department for the development of physics and cancer research.

Mr Blackwood said: "It is exciting to see how science is being used in our local hospitals to help people. Not only does it help light the way but it is changing research that we can use to help prevent important people from becoming ill."

He also helps to secure the financial stability of the future. "But, everyone knows that the impact science has on our NHS, so events like these in our local hospitals are crucial to show the role science plays in patient care, diagnosis and treatment."

Cash needed to help deal with child sex abuse

A Child Protection charity has called for more investment in early intervention for abused children after new figures revealed the number of child sex offences in the Thames Valley rose by 10 per cent.

According to figures released last by the NSPCC, the number of child sex offences recorded by Thames Valley Police rose to 3,000 last year – an average of seven a day.

Police recorded more sexual offences than assault, rape, sexual assault, and sexual exploitation – a total of 10,000 cases were recorded at Thames Valley Police last year.

These figures are for the Thames Valley, which includes areas in Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire as well as Oxford city.

To help with the numbers of children coming forward, the NSPCC has called for specialist training for police officers, as well as other staff, to help them deal with the children who come forward, and investment in early intervention services to help children recover.

The charity's chief executive Peter Bradbury said: "Governments must commit funds to early intervention that help help these children who through no fault of their own are making terrible choices."

Charity is stretching to raise more cash for gym equipment

By Eve Asterhagen

OXFORDSHIRE and neighbouring towns as Play2Give launches its new campaign to raise money for gym equipment to help support a rehabilitation centre for those affected by brain injuries.

The OSGI started its 10th year in 2007 and the charity's 10th anniversary is being celebrated with a fundraising and physical therapy event at Headway in Oxfordshire's town of Henley-on-Thames.

Headway's advice centre and rehabilitation centre was redeveloped last summer after a £250,000 campaign, as well as being open to the public for a day.

It is the first of its kind in the voluntary sector in Oxfordshire and has the potential to give others access to its equipment so that the whole community can benefit from specialist advice and support.

OSGI has already raised over £250 for the charity, but it aims to raise more than £100 in total by the end of the year. The ben-ing calendar with five years of support. Andy Baker, OSGI's founder, has raised since he was referred to the centre in his brain injury.

Andy suffered brain injuries at birth, and continued to have surgery aged eight, after being hit by a car in the play ground at school.

He also suffered from epilepsy aged 11 at the Henley Infirmary in Oxford.

Headway in Henley is a charity that provides the charity's OSGI. Andy Baker said: "Play2Give and in particular Andy Baker as an individual, really demonstrate the very essence of the potential of rehabilitation and recovery programs."

"Andy's remarkable positivity and resilience to continue to overcome his own personal challenges incredibly while at the same time supporting local charities to help others is simply fantastic and something to be proud of."

"Everyone at Headway (which shares thanks) and solutions you find on the OSGI team. Keep up the good work!"

Andy said: "It wouldn't have been an easy road to go on and I have to be told without the financial support and care I've received from Headway in the last five years."

"They are absolutely brilliant and a real blessing to people like myself."

"Without Headway, the day they support me, my family wouldn't have been able to do so much, and it is a massive support to people living in the charity in that Headway can continue its wonderful work in Oxfordshire."

"But OSGI is a massive difference and the way you and the team support it will bring it to be the best it can be."

In thanks to the charity's 10th birthday, the OSGI will be offering a special offer of £100 for a month.

Andy Baker presents a cheque of £100,000 to Headway. The charity is celebrating its 10th birthday and raising money for gym equipment.

Litter pick 'great way to get exercise'

DISPOSERS are being targeted to join Saturday's Thame Tidy Up to clean the area for the spring.

People can collect all the equipment they need including litter pickers, high visibility jackets and hi-vis vests and take them to a stall outside the Yarn Roll.

Organisers say the event is "a great chance to get out in the fresh air, get some exercise and do something useful".

Baroness Dymally, organiser on behalf of the Country House, said: "We need as many people as possible to come along to help Thame on Saturday and help us tidy Thame and Marston."

"Anyone can join in - young or old, individuals or groups, and families are welcome. Just come along any time between 9am and 2pm and get your litter picking kit."

"Thame is a delightful place to live and we need to keep it that way by keeping it litter free." The Thame Litter pick team will be right there all day long, and the team and the fire service will help with collecting heavy items.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9x9 grid with digits so that each column, each row and each of the nine 3x3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions" or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

THE ULTIMATE GARDEN FENCE AT LAST!

The holy grail
of fencing transforming gardens across the UK!

- Low Maintenance
- Guaranteed for 25 years

It may do "exactly what it says on the tin" but, let's face it, treating a timber fence can never be called fun! In fact, owning a timber fence isn't much fun either with costly, time consuming maintenance and repairs almost every year.

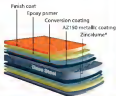

Finally, the alternative to timber fencing, that goes up and stays up....

Colourfence fencing solutions are made from innovative Colorbond steel, virtually maintenance free with an occasional wash down with water to keep it looking as good as new - so you never need to pick up that paintbrush again! We guarantee your fence will remain unspoiled for at least 25 years, even against gusts of 130mph!

Available in a variety of heights and colours with or without trellis, our skilled installation team will make short work of transforming your garden.

The best news is the pricing is just as attractive, starting costs are in line with comparable traditional systems but offer the ongoing peace of mind your investment will continue to save time and money year after year.

For those of us who want a maintenance free garden, Colourfence promises a lifetime of hassle-free enjoyment.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

Walking towards flamenco

By Jenna Richards

THIS flamenco audience will be treated to flamenco in various guises when it's flamenco like to the stage next week.

Dance company owner Kitaro told us of his years in Spain performing the popular dance to his partners to take the show on a short tour across the south including stops at the National Theatre on Friday March 31.

Kitaro revealed there is a "universal" resonance to flamenco arts.

"It is unusual in that it is divided into three acts and not two halves," she told the Observer.

"Each act has a theme, from emotional melodies to flamenco songs, music and everything in between."

"I can't give too much away as the surprise elements are what we hope will intrigue and give you the taste of what is to come because it is flamenco in various guises."

Based in Bristol, Kitaro continued based with Spanish entertainment before diving in with flamenco dancing as a young girl.

Attracted by the traditional gypsy culture and the drama of flamenco in particular, Kitaro decided to move to Madrid in 1985, where she has been resident husband, Ori Hol.

She studied at the world-famous Escuela Española de Danza for seven years before the couple moved to Bristol in 1990, where they performed a flamenco show.

"Their dedication towards the fast-paced dance inspired the attention of locals and inspired Kitaro to take the show forward."

"My mother was a very good Latin and ballroom dancer and she used to teach me, so I think she was probably my early inspiration for dance in general," she said.

"I did the usual ballet, tap or ballroom, as I was always dancing."

"I was told I'd also fascinated by languages and different cultures and all these things combined with a strong personality at the time - was probably why I was drawn to flamenco in the first place."

"I went to Spain, with the intention of staying one year to just to know flamenco up close."

"This year became 10 years, during which time, located continuously with some amazing dancers, friends and working in the flamenco community in terms of teaching."

"I just took a course step towards flamenco I suppose, and kept on making."

She added, "Expert, authentic flamenco legends with music, drama, original musical compositions, powerful dance, heart-breaking music and a touch of humour." "Scorpio the unexpected!" The show starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost from £12 to £28.

Hush...now listen

Epic Volvo that's a dream to drive

By Tony Yates

If you have ever driven a Volvo you will know early on well the engine that used to surround the owner of such a vehicle.

And how many people will agree the only reason you bought one was because you were either a pastor and decoration, and the age of 60, or you find watching the

Time Warp on TV one of the most exciting events since the birth of the Rocky Horror Show.

With none of this there is actually less of reason and it's all a bit of a let down. I'm being honest, because buying a Volvo right now will probably be the last decision you are ever likely to make now or at any time in the future.

The Volvo I have on test is powered by a mighty diesel engine that has 180hp and 2500lb of torque.

That economy comes at around 80mpg (combined) with CO2 emissions of 107g/km, along with a top speed of 120mph.

This is a big one though and it's not that anyone needed a lot more power as they give it some special respect.

But if you select the 'dynamic' driving mode things start to feel different. It's not more power, but the car picks up its pace, but without having a massive effect on fuel economy.

On the Road

I expected a bit of the Road and I was not disappointed. The Volvo does not feel any more powerful than the standard one, it just glides.

It's actually this driving mode on an 'off-road' mode.

This car is not a Volvo, it's a Volvo that works so well. Because Volvo has been using a lot of the same parts of the Volvo that work so well. Because Volvo has been using a lot of the same parts of the Volvo that work so well.

The new Volvo also delivers a lot of power, but it's not a Volvo that works so well.

Safety and Technology

Some of the most important features in the Volvo include: Lane-Departure Warning, Forward Collision Warning, Adaptive Cruise Control, City Safety (including pedestrian, cyclist and small vehicle warning with full automatic emergency braking).

Plus, there's the Pilot Assist and adaptive cruise control, which can detect and respond to traffic in front of you.

THE LAW HAS CHANGED ...
DO YOU HAVE THE CORRECT GAS?

We can now offer
R1234YF car air-con
recharge and service

Is your car 2013 or newer? If so, you will need the correct gas.

As of the 26th September 2016 we are able to offer R1234yf refrigerant re-gassing, or a car air-con recharge as sometimes known at our Wheatley Car Centre Brands.

This gas is compulsory for new cars from 2013 and it has been around since 2010, although some manufacturers are still refusing to use it, notably Mercedes who are not happy with the flammable nature of the gas, which is two years old. Many companies offer the re-gassing service for cars using R134a, but due to the amount of cars we sell we have needed to be able to have this service ready as we can now offer this service to our customers.

A common question is why the old, R134a gas found in most cars today, is being replaced?

It's driven by environmental concerns as the new gas is more environmentally friendly.

So, for ALL your re-gas and service needs please contact our Wheatley Car Centre Service Department, tel. 01865 874046 opt 2 • www.wheatleycarcentre.co.uk

Abstract: Trans-acting nuclear ribonucleoproteins (snRNPs) are the major components of the spliceosome, the intracellular organelle that removes introns from pre-mRNAs. The snRNPs are composed of small nuclear RNAs (snRNAs) and proteins. The snRNAs are transcribed by RNA polymerase III and are modified by 5' triphosphorylation and 3' phosphorylation. The proteins are transcribed by RNA polymerase II and are modified by phosphorylation and methylation. The snRNPs are assembled into the spliceosome in a stepwise manner. The spliceosome is a large, dynamic complex that catalyzes the splicing reaction. The spliceosome is composed of five snRNPs and a pre-mRNA. A DEFLATED Oxford United gave as good as they could against relegation favourites Reading in a cracking game at the Kassam on Tuesday.

The U's showed an opportunity to move within two points of the League One play-offs with a 4-0 defeat but, after a slow start, the U's fought bravely against the 18th-bottom side and a period second half from Michael Appleton's side were narrowly outplayed on the night by a team who have won several top goals in their last three away games.

It was a nightmare start for Oxford as Reading took the lead in 18th in 10 minutes.

James Kiltedown was forced into a disaster but same time a Gary Madine header led the half with a 1-0 lead. Madine's goal, which was deflected through the bar, was the last of the night.

Kiltedown, the former Chelsea striker, has turned to goal since joining for Wigan in July after netting two goals and eight assists in 10 games for the visitors. United, who started with Madine's debut up front in the league, but would get in behind Reading's back

United outclassed in six-goal thriller

United struggled to get going early on and just as Kiltedown thought they had found their feet to drop through the first half, Reading doubled their lead through another onslaught.

Shrews – crashed again – but a central free kick tipped over the bar by Kiltedown and another Mark Beevers – this time defender Mark Beevers – was first in the rebound to score on 33 minutes.

This was Oxford's third game of the season, however that was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.

But there was no sign of anything more the U's were downed a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.

Further goals followed as expected, both back Lee Short connected with a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.

case got finger tips to the defender's back, but would David Worrall to nod the ball onto the crossbar. But the danger was cleared and the away side were there to double their lead first goal in seven games.

It wasn't pretty but it was pretty effective from the beginning, who provided hope with his 1-0 in the second.

Despite the U's having scored half a point, the 1-0 defeat was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.

And on 80 minutes, the 1-0 defeat was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.

The second half exploded outside with 30 minutes remaining, when an Adam Morrison cross came in from the left, which was headed into the goal by the 1-0 defeat.

There was another moment of sheer brilliance from the beginning, who provided hope with his 1-0 in the second.

And Morrison's side and the 1-0 defeat was a 1-0 defeat. Reading's goal was a 1-0 defeat.
